Dedicated to the Study of Genealogy

The Middle Tennessee Genealogical Society (MTGS) is a non-profit corporation organized according to the laws of Tennessee.

The objectives of the Society are to create and stimulate interest in the study of genealogy and family history, to collect, preserve and make available genealogical information pertaining to Middle Tennessee, and to provide assistance in genealogical pursuits.

Membership Meetings

Meetings are held bi-monthly on the 3rd Saturday of January, March, May, July and September, at 1:00pm, at the Tennessee State Library and Archives in Nashville.

Meetings are open to the public.

For current events and meeting locations, check the MTGS website

www.mtgs.org

November Seminar

An annual all-day seminar is held in November. Chosen speakers are recognized authorities in their fields. The seminar is jointly sponsored by the Tennessee Historical Society & Brentwood Historic Commission.

Workshops

Workshops during the year may include topics such as Restoration/Preservation of Photos & Documents; How to Plot a Plat; Basics of DNA; Organizing Records; Migration Trails; Fraternal Organizations; How to Write Your Ancestor's Story; Immigration Records, Church Records,

Journals and E-newsletters

The Middle Tennessee Journal of Genealogy and History is published quarterly & mailed to all current members in the summer, fall, winter & spring quarters.

Members and non-members are encouraged to submit unpublished, primary-source material for inclusion in the MTGS Journal.

A well-documented article of broad interest or historical facts about your Middle Tennessee ancestors is welcomed.

Photographs and other illustrations can accompany the article and are encouraged.

Back issues of the MTGS Journal are available in paper form.

20-Year Journal CD

Journals for 1987-2007 are available in PDF format on CD. Index and order form available at: www.mtgs.org/journal

MTGS Messenger

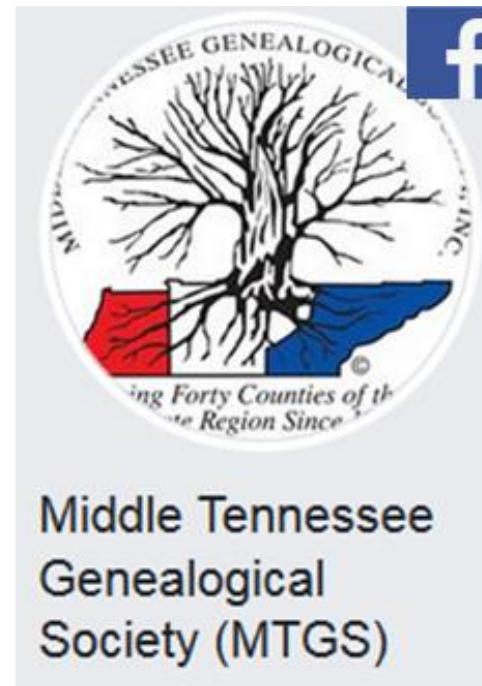

A bi-monthly e-newsletter is emailed to all members.

Family Bible Records Collections on DVD

The MTGS Bible Project, completed in 2008, contains images of many Bibles from the Middle Tennessee area. Every identifiable name was indexed & hyperlinked to the Bible pictures on the disc. The DVD contains 243 Bibles with 11,479 names indexed.
